

Title: Scleral lens use in the management of persistent epithelial defects

Author: Cian Gildea

Abstract:

A case series on the scleral lens management of those with persistent, non-healing epithelial defects. This will look at the current literature and present two cases of management.

Practical tips on implementation and strategies used will also be discussed.