

Title: Update - Myopia management in Switzerland

Author: Michael Baertschi

Abstract:

Since summer 2024, the costs of myopia management in Switzerland have been covered by compulsory health insurance, provided that progressive, potentially high myopia has been medically diagnosed.

This short presentation highlights the experiences gained so far, the arduous process of overcoming obstacles, and the current success of this regulatory measure.